- Two References: from people who are not relatives who have knowledge of your work ethic, maturity, and passion for culinary arts. Please include reference letters with completed Culinary Arts and Catering application OR send references directly to Carlin Hale, Culinary Arts Advisor, Flathead Valley Community College, 777 Grandview Drive Kalispell, MT 59901.

*Please note, once your application has been reviewed, you can expect to be contacted by Carlin Hale to set up a time to be interviewed. All applicants are interviewed before final acceptance into the program.

PROGRAM COSTS:

Please be aware of program costs, beyond the cost of books, tuition and fees, such as supply and uniform costs. Students are responsible for purchasing all required supplies and uniforms, and should adhere to the supply and uniform list available at FVCC's Campus Bookstore.

Please contact the Financial Aid Department to discuss the financial aid possibilities available to help finance your education. Additionally, you may be eligible for the Windmill Scholarship, which is a reimbursement scholarship that may be able to help defray some of the supplies and materials costs. Retain all receipts for supply and uniform purchases, as receipts are required with a Windmill Scholarship application.
