

Medical Laboratory Technology (MLT) Licensure Disclosure

Upon earning an Associate of Applied Science in Medical Laboratory Technology, graduates are eligible for the national examination for MLT by the American Society for Clinical Pathology (ASCP). Licensure is not required by the state of Montana for medical laboratory technologists.

This disclosure indicates, as of May 17, 2022, the states that FVCC has determined through a reasonable, good faith effort that the medical laboratory technology program meets or does not meet the educational requirements for licensure or certification, or for which states FVCC has yet to make a determination.

If you are planning to pursue professional licensure or certification in a state other than Montana, we recommend that you contact the appropriate licensing board in that state to seek information and guidance regarding licensure or certification requirements before beginning an academic program.
