

FVCC Senior Institute Libby 2023

Learn. Connect. Grow.

Credit classes offered to senior citizens age 65 and up

Fridays, February 17 - March 17

at FVCC Lincoln County Campus

1-2:30pm

Light refreshments served prior to class

Enrollment is limited – Registration begins February 1 by email, mail and in-person at FVCC Lincoln County campus.

If you are new to FVCC or have not enrolled in a credit course in the past two years, a non-degree application for admission is required in addition to the registration form.

Both are available to download at fvcc.edu/senior-institute or at the front desk of FVCC Lincoln County Campus.

Class	Course #	Instructor	Total Tuition
-------	----------	------------	---------------

Prevention and/or Treatment of Common Ailments with Nutrition	SR_84.5_60	Dr. Greg Rice, MD	$30*
--	-------------------	--------------------------	--------------

Develop a better understanding of your digestive system and how to prevent or treat heart burn, colon cancer, diabetes and more. Explore solutions to some common health problems not often seen in advertising because the solutions do not involve medications, surgery, or a lot of testing.

--	-------------------	--------------------	--------------

Explore Libby's history by examining forces that have impacted its development. Focus on Libby's connection to the rest of Lincoln county and neighboring regions as well as its schools, churches, businesses and social groups.

See other side for more details

Prices shown are for in-district residents of Flathead and Lincoln counties. For out-of-district senior Montana residents, tuition and fees are $124.60. For those who have not lived in Montana for at least 12 months, tuition and fees are $230.35. For more information, visit fvcc.edu/senior-institute or contact seniorinstitute@fvcc.edu.*
