A copy of any such material shall be furnished to the Employee.

Any Employee who believes that statements in their personnel file are factually incorrect, shall have the right to seek removal or revision of the statements through the grievance procedure.

Letters of warning, letters of suspension, or written reprimands shall be considered temporary contents of the personnel file of an Employee and shall be destroyed no later than two (2) years after they have been placed in the file unless the Employee has been formally disciplined during the two (2) year period in which case the material shall be retained for two (2) years from the date of the last disciplinary action.

Material placed in the personnel file of an Employee without conformity with the provisions of this Article will not be used by the Employer in any subsequent evaluation or disciplinary proceeding involving the Employee.

An Employee may request the presence of a union representative during an investigatory interview which the Employee reasonably believes may result in disciplinary action. It is understood that the Employee may decline to answer any specific question during such an interview.

Section E. Job Sharing

A position which is currently filled by an Employee may not be made into a job-sharing position except with the agreement of the Employee and the Union.

ARTICLE 9 WORK STOPPAGES

The Union and all members of the bargaining unit agree that there shall be no strikes or other concerted activities that interfere with the normal operation of the College during the term of this Agreement. There will be no lockout of employees covered by this Agreement by the Board as a consequence of any dispute arising during the term of this Agreement.

Changes in union dues rates will be certified to the Employer in writing by an authorized officer of the Union and at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance of such change.

Section E. Hold Harmless

The Union will indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any claim made and against any suit instituted against the Employer, on account of its compliance with the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE 12. NEW POSITIONS OR VACANCIES

Section A. New Hires, Promotions, or Transfers

Every new hire, promotion, or transfer decision shall be based upon the needs of the College, and the qualifications, abilities, and past performance of the applicant. Only Employees covered by this Agreement shall be eligible to apply as internal applicants for new positions or vacancies within the bargaining unit. If two or more Employees are deemed to be equally qualified as determined by the Administration, then seniority shall be the deciding factor in awarding the job.

Upon receipt of an approved Employment Requisition for a new position or vacancy, the Human Resources Director or her/his designee will notify Employees of the position vacancy through e-mail or inter-campus mail on the FVCC campus. Notification shall be given to LCC Employees via fax or e-mail. Five working days shall be given between the time the vacancy is posted and the closing date.

Qualified internal applicants will be considered for the position before the position is advertised outside the College. If, in the judgment of the responsible administrator and the President or his/her designee, an internal applicant meets the requirements for the position, an internal applicant will be hired for that position.

If in the judgment of the responsible administrator and the President or his/her designee, no internal applicant(s) meet(s) the requirements for the position, the position will be advertised outside the College. Unsuccessful applicants shall be notified in writing upon completion of the selection process. Upon request, the unsuccessful applicant shall also be entitled to a written statement of the reason(s) why they were not selected for the position.

Employees may apply for position vacancies by following the application procedures as shown in the position vacancy announcement.

Section B. Trial Period for Employees Who Are Promoted or Transferred

Any Employee who is promoted or transferred will be required to serve a new trial period of two (2) months in the new position. An Employee who is unable to satisfactorily perform the job during the trial period shall be entitled to the right to return to their previously held position. Employees who are returned to their former position shall have priority in that position over any other promoted or transferred Employee or new hire.

ARTICLE 13. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

All new Employees hired into permanent positions are on a probationary basis for the first six (6) months, exclusive of summer recess if applicable, during which time the College determines whether or not the Employee is performing satisfactorily and the Employee determines whether or not they are satisfied with the position. Probationary Employees shall be provided a written evaluation sometime during the third or fourth month of the probationary period. Upon mutual agreement the Employee and the direct supervisor may request a three-month extension of the probationary period. Such requests shall be made to the Human Resources Director or her/his designee and submitted to the President for approval or disapproval.

A probationary Employee may be discharged at any time during the probationary period for job-related reasons without progressive discipline or just cause. Probationary Employees may not grieve their termination.

ARTICLE 14. DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

Section A. Corrective Discipline

No permanent Employee may be disciplined or discharged except for just cause. An Employee subject to disciplinary action shall be informed, upon request, in writing of the reason(s) for the disciplinary action and shall be provided with an opportunity to respond in writing to the proposed action prior to its implementation. Corrective discipline by the College, as a method of dealing with unsatisfactory performance or misconduct of Employees, is designed to provide the Employee with an opportunity to become aware of and correct the misconduct or unsatisfactory performance and restore the Employee as a productive member of the work force. It is not necessary that the types of corrective discipline be applied sequentially (i.e., verbal warning, documented warning, suspension, and discharge). Guidelines contained in the Board of Trustees' Policy Manual--Personnel Section shall be used in determining the most appropriate type of corrective discipline for any given infraction. It is understood and agreed that these guidelines are not all inclusive and shall be reasonable and fairly applied.

Section B. Notification of Corrective Discipline

Any supervisor who takes corrective disciplinary action toward an Employee under their authority shall furnish a copy of said action to the Human Resources Director or her/his designee and the President or his/her designee within one working day.

ARTICLE 15. PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

Section A. Probationary Period

Before the end of any probationary period, the supervisor shall prepare a written evaluation of the Employee's performance.

The performance evaluation shall be reviewed with the Employee, signed by the supervisor and Employee and forwarded to the Human Resources Director or her/his designee.

Section B. Annual Employee Performance Evaluation

Each permanent, full-time and permanent, part-time Employee's job performance shall be reviewed annually and a written performance rating prepared during the month of May.

The written performance evaluation shall be reviewed and signed by the Employee and the supervisor before it is sent to the Human Resources Director or her/his designee. A copy will be provided to the Employee.

An Employee desiring to challenge a performance evaluation rating may, at the time the Employee signs the copy, indicate that the Employee desires to submit a written response which must be submitted within fourteen (14) days to the supervisor. The written response shall be forwarded with the performance evaluation to the Human Resources Director or her/his designee and a copy placed in the Employee's personnel file.

Any Employee who believes that statements in their performance evaluation are factually incorrect shall have the right to seek removal or revision of these statements through the grievance procedure. Performance ratings shall not be grievable.

ARTICLE 16. CLASSIFICATION REVIEW

Section A. Responsibilities of the College

The College will maintain a position classification system and conduct such studies as deemed appropriate to re-evaluate positions.

When the duties and responsibilities of a position change as a result of growth, reorganization, or other factors, the College will perform job re-evaluations and reclassifications as deemed necessary.

Section B. Conditions for Requesting a Position Re-evaluation

Requests for a position re-evaluation may be initiated by:

1. an individual Employee who has been in that position for at least twelve (12) months; provided, however, that the position has not been re-evaluated within the last twenty-four (24) months.
2. a group of Employees with the same or similar job titles; provided, however, that job title has not been re-evaluated or reclassified within the past twenty-four (24) months.
3. an Employee in a position which has been reviewed in the last twenty-four (24) months but who has reason to believe that the assigned duties are significantly different than those specified in their position description. In the event the Employee can demonstrate that their job duties are significantly different than those specified in their position description, the Employee may submit a request for a special review to the Human Resources Director or her/his designee, who may waive any time limitation. The Employee's request shall be in writing, using the form provided by HR, and shall be accompanied by a detailed list of duties and responsibilities. Any refusal to waive the time limits provided in this section may be appealed through the grievance procedure. For the purposes of position re-evaluation, a current job description should first be obtained from HR..

Section C. Procedures and Timeliness for Position Re-evaluations

Requests for reclassification shall be submitted to the Human Resources Director or her/his designee. The request shall include a statement explaining why the Employee believes they have been improperly classified. The statement must describe the duties which constitute the basis for the appeal and shall propose the appropriate remedy. A form for requesting re-evaluation of positions is available from HR.

Requests by an individual or by members of a group shall be forwarded to the Human Resources Office with a copy sent to the Employee's(s') immediate supervisor(s) and to the Union. The Human Resources Director or her/his designee shall forward the request along with findings and recommendations through administrative channels to the College Compensation Committee. Re-evaluation requests will be considered by the appropriate committee in November and May of each year. Applications for re-evaluation received after November 1 will not be considered until the May meeting, and applications received after May 1 will not be considered until the November meeting. Any resulting reclassifications will be retroactive to a maximum of 90 days previous to these deadlines.

Each affected Employee and Union shall be furnished a copy of the decision within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the evaluation committee meeting. The decision may include but is not limited to the following:

1. Reclassification to a higher or a lower job classification.
2. No change in job classification.

No Employee shall suffer any retaliation as a result of the filing of a classification appeal.

Should the Union be dissatisfied with the Compensation Committee's decision, the appeal may be submitted to a professional position analyst, mutually chosen by the Union and the Employer, who shall issue a final and binding decision on the appeal. The method used to choose a professional position analyst shall be as follows:

The College and the Union shall each submit the names of two analysts who are acceptable to both the Union and the College to serve as the professional position analyst for the above-stated purpose. The four names shall each be written on equally-sized, separate slips of paper and placed in a container. One of the names shall be drawn from the container in a manner suitable to both the Union and the College and the one name drawn shall be that of the analyst used for the final step of the position analysis.

The position analyst shall interview the appellant and the immediate supervisor before rendering a decision. The position analyst may conduct the interviews in person or by telephone.

The analyst's decision shall not be subject to the grievance procedure. The fee charged by the position analyst, as well as his or her travel expenses, lodging, meals and other related costs shall be born by the Union or the College, whichever is the non-prevailing party.

An Employee whose position is upgraded as a result of a classification review shall be reimbursed retroactively to thirty (30) days prior to the date of application for a review or the date which the duties were assumed, whichever is later, to a maximum of 90 days retroactive reimbursement. The same timeliness shall apply to position upgrades initiated by the College.

ARTICLE 17. SENIORITY AND LAYOFF

Section A. Seniority

Seniority means the length of continuous service in a bargaining unit position since the last date of hire. For the purposes of this Agreement, the last date of hire for each Employee is listed in Addendum B of this Agreement.

Seniority shall continue to accrue during all layoffs and approved leaves of absence not exceeding one (1) year.

Section B. Scheduled Layoff

An Employee's employment may be temporarily discontinued at certain regularly scheduled times or intervals mutually understood to be an inherent condition of employment.

Section C. Unscheduled Layoff/Involuntary Transfer

The Employer may lay off Employees because of reduction of force due to lack of funds, work, or for other compelling reasons.

When the Employer determines that a layoff or involuntary transfer(s) is(are) necessary, such layoff or transfer(s) shall be based upon the needs of the College, and the seniority, and the qualifications of the Employees. An Employee transferred to a lower pay range shall be placed at the Employee's current rate of pay. Under the broadband system, there is no maximum pay level in any range.

Any permanent Employee subject to layoff or a permanent reduction in work hours shall be given thirty (30) calendar days advance notice of the action. In cases where the College can show financial exigency, the College will provide as much notice as possible. Any unscheduled layoff shall have prior approval of the Human Resources Director or her/his designee and the President or his/her designee.

Senior Employees subject to layoff may elect to bump temporary or probationary employees if they meet the minimum qualifications required for the position, or the least senior Employee at the same pay range if that Employee holds a position for which the Employee subject to layoff is qualified, or the least senior Employee in each lower pay range who holds a position for which the Employee subject to layoff is qualified if there is no position in the same pay range for which the Employee qualifies. Employees who elect to bump to a lower pay range shall continue to be paid at their current rate of pay for six (6) working months after the change in pay range placement. Thereafter, the Employee will be paid at a lower rate calculated at 2.5% per pay range of demotion.

The applications of Employees with permanent status who are on layoff and are qualified to fill a vacancy or newly-created position will be given preference over other applications from outside the bargaining unit.

Employees on layoff status shall be recalled to their previously held position if it becomes available within one (1) year from the date of layoff. In recalling Employees, the Employer shall send a certified, return receipt letter to the last known address of the Employee with a copy to the Union. The letter shall state that failure to notify the Employer within fifteen (15) working days of their intent to return to work shall constitute forfeiture of all recall rights.

Section D. Holiday Layoff

Employees laid off due to Christmas vacation shall be entitled to holiday pay for Christmas and New Year's Day. Any Employee laid off or terminated five calendar days or less prior to Christmas or New Year's shall receive pay for that holiday.

ARTICLE 18. WORKING CONDITIONS

Section A. Work Day/Work Week

A regular work day shall consist of eight (8) consecutive hours of work, including two (2) fifteen (15) minute duty-free rest breaks. Employees, except those assigned to work a swing shift, shall also be granted an unpaid, duty-free meal break. For swing shift Employees to receive a thirty (30) minute paid meal break, the Employees must remain on the College premises. If they choose to leave the campus, they can still take a 30 minute meal break, but without pay. Additional unpaid leave may be granted during the work shift with the approval of the Employee's administrative-level supervisor.

A regular work week shall consist of five (5) regular work days, Monday through Friday inclusive, totaling forty (40) hours. Should week-end work be necessary, the Employer agrees to assign qualified volunteers. If no Employee volunteers for week-end work, the Employer shall assign the least senior qualified Employee(s) to perform the work.

Section B. Alternate Work Hours

By mutual agreement between the Employee and the Employer, alternate work hours or work weeks may be established as long as no Employee is regularly scheduled to work more than forty (40) hours per week.

An Employee working an alternate schedule shall not have their schedule changed without receiving three (3) working days notice, except in emergency circumstances.

Section C. Job Description

No Employee shall be required to regularly perform duties not specified in their job description except during emergencies.

Section D. Governmental Programs

No bargaining unit position may be filled by an employee funded by work-study, work-fare, the J.T.P.A. or any similar governmental program without the concurrence of the Union.

Section E. Release Time for Meetings

Whenever Employees are scheduled by the Employer to participate during working hours in conferences or meetings, they shall be granted the necessary release time.

ARTICLE 19. OVERTIME AND COMPENSATORY TIME

Section A. Overtime

The acceptance of overtime work shall be at the Employee's option unless the Employee is provided with a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours prior notice that overtime work is needed.

Employees shall receive overtime pay at a rate of 1½ times their regular rate of pay for time worked over forty (40) hours per week. During the term of this contract, non-floating holidays, sick leave and emergency closure days shall count as days worked for the purposes of calculating overtime.

Section E. Rules of Arbitration

Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Union's notice of its intent to arbitrate a grievance, the parties shall call upon the Montana Board of Personnel Appeals, unless both parties agree to use a list provided by the American Arbitration Association or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, for a list of potential arbitrators.

Upon request, each party shall be entitled to strike names from the list in alternate order and the name so remaining shall be the arbitrator. A coin toss shall determine which party will strike the first name.

The parties agree to provide each other with a copy of any documentary evidence they intend to introduce at the arbitration hearing.

The arbitrator shall render a decision within thirty (30) working days of the hearing and that decision shall be final and binding. By mutual agreement, the parties may request a bench decision from the arbitrator.

Each party shall share equally the cost of the arbitrator. In the event one of the parties wants transcripts from the proceeding of the arbitration, the party requesting the transcripts shall pay all costs. If each party requests a transcript, they shall equally share the cost. The arbitrator shall not add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this Agreement.

The arbitrator shall decide all substantive and procedural arbitrability issues.

Section F. Award of Arbitrator

The award of the arbitrator may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction should either party fail to implement the award. If a motion to vacate the arbitrator's award is entered in a court of competent jurisdiction, and the initiating party does not prevail in the litigation, such party shall bear the full costs of such action including, but not limited to the adverse party's court costs, legal fees, and other related expenses incurred as a result of defending such action.

ARTICLE 30. SAFETY

The Employer shall provide a place of employment which does not endanger the health or safety of Employees in accordance with state law. Employees shall notify the Employer of any safety or health hazards observed incident to employment. The Employer shall investigate the matter and the parties shall cooperate in initiating appropriate remedial action.

The Employer agrees to provide any uniform or protective device required while working.

ARTICLE 31. WAIVER

Failure of either party to require performance by the other party of any promise, condition, or covenant herein shall in no way affect the full right to require such performance at any time thereafter, nor shall the waiver by either party of a breach of any promise, condition, or covenant hereof be taken or held to be a waiver of the promise, condition, or covenant.

ARTICLE 32. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

All matters on which the parties have reached agreement are set forth in this Agreement. During its term, this Agreement may be altered, changed, added to, deleted from or modified only through the voluntary mutual consent of the parties in written and signed amendment to this Agreement, after completion of appropriate ratification procedures by both parties.

During the duration of the Agreement, the provisions hereof shall supersede any previous or future regulations, practices, rules, policies, Board minutes, or handbook provisions which may be in conflict with the express terms hereof.

ARTICLE 33. SEVERABILITY

In the event that any provisions of this Agreement shall be declared invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not invalidate the entire Agreement, it being the expressed intention of the parties hereto that all other provisions not declared invalid or unenforceable, shall remain in full force and effect. Either party may initiate negotiations on the provision declared invalid.
