ACADEMIC AND STUDENT AFFAIRS Nursing: December 2024: All 9 ASN-RN graduates successfully passed the licensing exam. Nursing: December 2024: Five of eight PN graduates have tested: four passed the licensing exam. Nursing: Lunch and Learn for future nursing students was Tuesday, March 4. It was hosted by TRIO advisor Leslie Greene, pre-nursing advisor Kate Scholer, and Nursing Program Director, Carla Genovese. Twelve in-person and six Zoom attended. Nursing: On February 26, the Nursing Program Director hosted a "Cookies with Carla" event for current nursing students. The purpose is to provide a venue for nursing students to support each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	Increase Completion of Degrees and Certificates X X	Goal 2 Cultivate a Supportive Teaching and Learning Environment X X	Goal 3 Foster an Environment of Access, Belonging, and Success	Goal 4 Enhance institutional vitality X
ACADEMIC AND STUDENT AFFAIRS Nursing: December 2024: All 9 ASN-RN graduates successfully passed the licensing exam. Nursing: December 2024: Five of eight PN graduates have tested: four passed the licensing exam. Nursing: Lunch and Learn for future nursing students was Tuesday, March 4. It was hosted by TRIO advisor Leslie Greene, pre-nursing advisor Kate Scholer, and Nursing Program Director, Carla Genovese. Twelve in-person and six Zoom attended. Nursing: On February 26, the Nursing Program Director hosted a "Cookies with Carla" event for current nursing students. The purpose is to provide a venue for nursing students to support each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	Completion of Degrees and Certificates X X	Supportive Teaching and Learning Environment X	Environment of Access, Belonging, and	institutiona vitality X
Nursing: December 2024: All 9 ASN-RN graduates successfully passed the licensing exam. Nursing: December 2024: Five of eight PN graduates have tested: four passed the licensing exam. Nursing: Lunch and Learn for future nursing students was Tuesday, March 4. It was hosted by TRIO advisor Leslie Greene, pre-nursing advisor Kate Scholer, and Nursing Program Director, Carla Genovese. Twelve in-person and six Zoom attended. Nursing: On February 26, the Nursing Program Director hosted a "Cookies with Carla" event for current nursing students. The purpose is to provide a venue for nursing students to support each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	x	х
Nursing: December 2024: Five of eight PN graduates have tested: four passed the licensing exam. Nursing: Lunch and Learn for future nursing students was Tuesday, March 4. It was hosted by TRIO advisor Leslie Greene, pre-nursing advisor Kate Scholer, and Nursing Program Director, Carla Genovese. Twelve in-person and six Zoom attended. Nursing: On February 26, the Nursing Program Director hosted a "Cookies with Carla" event for current nursing students. The purpose is to provide a venue for nursing students to support each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	x	х
Nursing: Lunch and Learn for future nursing students was Tuesday, March 4. It was hosted by TRIO advisor Leslie Greene, pre-nursing advisor Kate Scholer, and Nursing Program Director, Carla Genovese. Twelve in-person and six Zoom attended. Nursing: On February 26, the Nursing Program Director hosted a "Cookies with Carla" event for current nursing students. The purpose is to provide a venue for nursing students to support each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	х			Х
Nursing: Lunch and Learn for future nursing students was Tuesday, March 4. It was hosted by TRIO advisor Leslie Greene, pre-nursing advisor Kate Scholer, and Nursing Program Director, Carla Genovese. Twelve in-person and six Zoom attended. Nursing: On February 26, the Nursing Program Director hosted a "Cookies with Carla" event for current nursing students. The purpose is to provide a venue for nursing students to support each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	х			X
TRIO advisor Leslie Greene, pre-nursing advisor Kate Scholer, and Nursing Program Director, Carla Genovese. Twelve in-person and six Zoom attended. Nursing: On February 26, the Nursing Program Director hosted a "Cookies with Carla" event for current nursing students. The purpose is to provide a venue for nursing students to support each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,		х current nursing students. The purpose is to provide a venue for nursing students to support each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	v		х	Х
each other, share challenges and resources, and learn tips from Carla on how to be a successful new nurse. Approximately half of current nursing students attended. Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	v
Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	v
Brenda Hanson will serve as a NWCCU Peer Evaluation Team Chair for a spring 2025 Evaluation of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	v
of Institutional Effectiveness (EIE) visit at a community college in Oregon, March 31-April 2. Twenty six TRIO Pell eligible students with high unmet needs were awarded Grant Aid funds provided by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,	^	Х	Х	Х by TRIO. Each received $750 for spring semester. The application process included creating an academic plan with their advisor and a short course in financial literacy through the online platform,				x
Financial Literacy 101.	х	x	x
FOUNDATION
$320,575 was raised from 108 gifts from February 11-March 10	Х	Х	Х	Х
Donor and Scholarship Reception for 160 held March 5	Х	Х	Х	Х
Whitefish High School career fair-non profit leaders	Х	Х	Х	Х
HUMAN RESOURCES
Employee Happenings
Joining Us:
Leaving Us: Crystal Morris - Director, Financial; Elizabeth Moonen - Financial Aid Advisor	Х	X	X	X
Professional Development: Dementia Live Simulation Experience, Navigating Financial Transitions, Humor in the Workplace, Building High Performing Teams for supervisors,
FVCC105 - Continuing Education	Х	X	X	X
Negotiations: Faculty and Adjunct faculty negotiations are open	Х	Х	Х	Х
INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
A new admissions application is now live within our new CRM, Slate. This will provide a better application process and increased communication with prospective students during that process.		Х	Х	Х
A new Student Information System, Thesis Elements, launched on the weekend of 1 March. This includes new faculty and student portals. The stabilization phase will last at least through the end of March.		Х	X	X
		^	^
MARKETING
Completed phase 1 of 3- archiving and organizing over 20 years of digitally-housed marketing files, which will allow for a more streamlined workflow and lead to faster task completion rates		1		Ì